August 5 - The Library at the Edge of the World
by Felicity Hayes-McCoy
Librarian Hanna Casey tries not to think about her failed marriage, or the fact that she is back living in her mother’s home on Ireland’s West Coast. But when the threatened closure of the Lissbeg Library puts her personal plans in jeopardy, Hanna finds herself leading a battle to restore the heart and soul of the Finfaran Peninsula's fragmented community. The neighbors she’d always kept at a distance end up meaning more to her than she ever could have imagined

August 19 - Murder, They Wrote Book Discussion
The Moonstone by Wilkie Collins
First published in 1868 and is considered the granddaddy of all detective novels. It has stood the test of time and has all the elements of a great mystery...a complex crime, lots of suspects, and murder! The story centers on the Moonstone, a diamond taken from an Indian shrine and brought back to England by a British officer. There is a curse on it, as well as an ingenious inspector determined to get to the truth.
